Le Barthélemy Hotel & Spa

Just perusing the website of this property will sell you on a dreamy beachfront escape. However, if you still need convincing, this hotel is known around around the world for their care for guests and attention to detail— you won't find white glove service like this anywhere else (one Tripadvisor reviewer noted that room service noticed her fingerprinted sunglasses in the room, leaving lens cleaner next to them for her). The facilities at Le Bathélemy include a water-sports center and a day spa, if you're in the mood for a different type of hydration.
